

Ready, Set, Act Week

CONTINUES THROUGH MAY 7, 2002

Saturday, April 27

- Wally Wise Guy shows up again, this time at the Day of the Child celebration from 12-1 p.m. at the City Library at 235 East Gladys in Hermiston.
- From 2-5 p.m., Wally turtles over to the Hermiston Wal-Mart Store on Highway 395 to present an array of staff members and equipment from the Umatilla Chemical Depot and local CSEPP offices. On hand will be a chemical weapons display trailer and mobile monitoring lab from the Depot, decontamination trailer from Umatilla-Morrow County, and several CSEPP displays on emergency preparedness. Wally and CSEPP staff members will meet with children and adults coming and going from Wal-Mart, and just passing by. Kids can compete in a spelling bee or knowledge bowl, too.

Thursday, May 2

- CSEPP officials and public information officers (PIOs) will discuss Ready, Set, Act Week events during the 8:15 a.m. Coffee Hour on KUMA radio in Pendleton at 1290 AM. Joining in will be representatives from the National Institute of Chemical Studies (NICS) in West Virginia.
- CSEPP officials and PIOs will also discuss emergency preparedness on KONA radio in the Tri Cities at 610 AM in anticipation of the Annual Emergency Preparedness Exercise coming up May 7 for the Umatilla Chemical Depot and surrounding jurisdictions. CSEPP interviews will air on KONA's Profiles program morning and afternoon throughout the week.
- Safety experts from NICS (see above) will present two concurrent Shelter-In-Place programs at 7 p.m.—one at the Chemical Disposal Outreach Office at 190 East Main Street in Hermiston; and the other at Stokes Landing Senior and Community Center in Irrigon.

Friday, May 3

- CSEPP officials and PIOs and NICS representatives will appear on the Odds and Ends program starting at 8:30 a.m. on KOHU radio in Hermiston at 1360 AM.
- CSEPP officials at a noon luncheon at the Umatilla Senior Center in Umatilla.

Saturday, May 4

- Wally Wise Guy and CSEPP staff will be at Cinco de Mayo from 12-6 p.m. at Boardman's Marina Park. See simulations of a decontamination station in action. NICS experts will answer questions about shelter-in-place.

Sunday, May 5

- Wally Wise Guy and CSEPP staff join in with Hermiston's Cinco de Mayo event in MacKenzie Park, 12-6 p.m. The Umatilla Chemical Depot will display its chemical weapons display trailer and mobile monitoring laboratory, and Umatilla-Morrow County first responders will display their decontamination trailer. NICS representatives will be available to answer questions shelter-in-place.

Monday, May 6

- CSEPP officials featured at luncheon at the Stokes Landing Senior Center in Irrigon.

Tuesday, May 7

- A.C. Houghton Elementary School Overpressurization Drill
- During evening hours, all CSEPP and Depot personnel participate in the program's Annual Emergency Preparedness Exercise. Watch for media coverage, and take time to exercise YOUR own emergency plan.
