MEDIA ADVISORY

UMATILLA CHEMICAL DEPOT, Hermiston, Ore. – Attached is a media advisory the U.S. Army Chemical Materials Agency (CMA) issued today. CMA is the headquarters agency for Umatilla Chemical Depot.

The media advisory provides an update on recent rocket fires occurring at the Umatilla Chemical Agent Disposal Facility and the Pine Bluff Chemical Agent Disposal Facility. It also describes a comprehensive assessment that will look into the continued integrity of the explosive containment rooms as well as investigating potential issues with the propellant and associated rocket parts.

If you have questions pertaining to the media advisory, please refer to the points of contact listed in the CMA release. If you have questions pertaining to Umatilla Chemical Depot and the Umatilla Chemical Agent Disposal Facility project, please contact Mary Alice Binder, public affairs officer.
